like this one there is hardly one chance in a hundred.

The man who id the shooting is Ustorio Linares, and the Sheriff's deputies in that part of the county and the peace officers of Orange county are making every effort to find him. He disappeared and no one has been found who has seen him since.

The two men had trouble Sunday aftternoon, the nature of which is known in only to themselves. Friends had interfered, and prevented a fight, but Linares left swearing vengeance because of a supposed wrong which Romero had done him.

That night Romero and a party of friends were in a general store in which there is a bar, when Linares, who had been drinking, entered. At sight of Romero he renewed the quarrel of the afternoon, and is said to have threatened to kill his enemy. Romero refused to fight, and Linares dared him to go outside and 'have it out' with him. As Romero would not take up his proposition he left.

For nearly an hour Romero remained in the store, then started home. He reached the door and opened it, but hardly had he stepped outside when a shot was fired, followed by several others, and he sank to the ground with what is almost certain to prove a mortal wound. Linares was seen in the shooting.

Fresno, president of the Fresno County Chamber of Commerce, and W. E. Gr. Severance of Laton, an active worker in the same organization. To Mr. Neu is given the credit of securing the cooperation of the railroad companies in granting reduced rates, and it is through his efforts to a great extent that the northern counties have come to Los Angeles with their exhibits.

Mr. Neu says that efforts are being made in the north to have geductions made in freight frates from Los Angeles to points as far north as Stockton, in which event the merchants of this city will be in a position to compete more strengly with the San Francisco jobbers for the growing trade of the San Joaquin Valley. The rates already have been equalized to Tulare, a point half way from Los Angeles to Stockton, and it is hoped that the extension of the district will be made soon.

Since the valley counties have come. Since the vailey counties have come south to exploit their resources there has been an awakening of the commercial bodies of San Francisco, who see in the movement a prospect of losing much valuable business, and overtical have been made to induce the ing much valuable business, and overtures have been made to induce the removal of the agencies to that city. The various counties are spending from $1000 to $1500 per month in Los Angeless, and the managers say they are more than pleased with the results of their laboy. As this was not an unusual request, and the place seemed to be doing a good bustness, the merchants did not question him. Yesterday the restaurant was not opened. Customers found the doors locked and barred. None of the furniture of the place had been removed, but there was no one there. Among those who called was the collector for Sentous & Co., who had a bill for 106 against Tim. Not finding the proprietor, he made a search through Chinatown for him, and was informed that Tim had taken a train for the north the night before, saying that he was thred of the restaurant business and had decided to go. Epifanio Romero, aged 28, lies on what probably will be his deathbed at the County Hospital, as a result of a gunshot wound received by him Sunday night at Santa Fé Springs, a settlement in the extreme southeastern border of Los angeles county. He was on the operating table at the hospital last night for three hours, and the bullet was extracted, but it was found that it had shattered his thigh bone in such manner that if he recovers from the effects of the operation he will have to submit to another for amputation of his left leg at the hip. So great was the volume of business; that two extra clerks were ordered for duty from the general postoffice.

The furnishings of the station, which is on the Franklin-street side of the People's Store, are entirely new, with the exception of the big safe, and are said to be the finest of any office on the Coast. The partitions are of oak, and the carriers' tables and other ap-

The company has expended $20,000 aiready in the installation of waterworks, which will be extended as fast as needed. A telephone system has been put in, and an electric light plant and an ice factory are projected. Another plan that will materialise soon will be a street railway to run between the city and the smelters, which will be about a mile from the townsite proper. The power at first is to be steam, but electricity will be utilized later. For the housing of the smelter employés the company will be utilized later. For the housing of the smelter employes the company has plans prepared for fifty or, more cottages. A steam laundry plant has been moved from Flagstaff to Douglas. SAN BERNARDINO, April 2.—Hon. Irvin Stratton, a prominent horse breeder of Kansas, whose home is in Wichita, was fatally injured here this afternoon. Former Judge Stratton is spending the winter in this city, and today he was driving down E street. Near Wesley station his horse became frightened at an approaching car of the San Bernardino Valley Traction Company, and backed the buggy upon the track. The car struck the vehicle and hurt the occupant so that he is not expected to recover. At the same moment a Southern Partite motor, coming just behind and parallel to the electric car, struck the animal Stratton, had been driving and instantly killed it.

DEATH OF COL FEUDGE. SANTA BARBARA BREVITIES. A marriage license was issued yesterday to S. E. Buswell and Mrs. Lottle Alpine, both of Los Angeles.

Many a woman dresses to go out, feels frresolute, sits down, and falls into a fit of despondent musing. Ask her what's the matter, and she'll probably answer "Just the blues." And what are the blues? Only another name, in general, for a disordered liver and a diseased stomach. Cleanse the liver, heal the stomach, purify the blood, and there'll be no more blues. It can be done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine puts the diseased organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of sound health. It eliminates from the blood all impure and poisonous substances, and cleanses the clogged liver. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

SANTA MONICA.

UNKNOWN BOY HURT. SANTA MONICA, April 2.-A boy SANTA MONICA, April 2.—A boy aged about 13 fell from a wheel in Sawtelle Saturday morning and received severe bruises about his head, which caused unconsciousness. No one about Sawtelle seemed to know the lad, and he was taken into the house of Mr. Delanc and cared for. The boy's mind wandered and for a long time no intelligent statement could be obtained from him. When he had partially recovered he made a rather rambling statement, in which he said his name was Bert Brown and that he lived in Santa Monica. He said that he and two other bays had ridden their bicycles to Whittier, and that he had got separated from his companions and had started to make his way home alone. Efforts have been made to find the lad's parents in this city, but with the vague information that hiss been obtained from the boy his home has not been located.

New Chamber of Commerce Building to Go Up On Chosen Site, as Per Formal Agreement.

* T A special meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, held May 10, 1901, the following resolution was adopted, ten members voting "aye" and three "no." Later the negative voters changed their votes to "aye" making the action unanimous:

"Resolved, by the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, that the said donation by the property holders in that locality [Broadway, between First and Second streets,] be and the same is hereby accepted, and the said lot is hereby selected as the site for the Chamber of Commerce, and the Board of Directors thereof does 1 hereby pledge its good faith to take immediate steps to consummate the purchase of such property and raise the necessary funds for the erection of a building thereon to cost not less than $75,000, exclusive of the purchase price of the lot, and to proceed with the construction of said building with due diligence after the necessary money therefor has been raised."

Commerce is pledged to the erection of a building to cost not less than $75,000, on the lot situated on the east side of Broadway between First and Second streets, recently purchased for that purpose.

This pledge was made by formal resolution, unanimously adopted May 10, 1801, in accepting a donation of $31,600 made by interested property holders in consideration that the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce would be established on the premises in question.

At the time this solemn obligation was taken the matter of location for the proposed new home for the Chamber of Commerce was considered finally settled. The directors had long deliberated over the question of an available and proper site, and offers from property owners in various sections of the business district were invited. There was spirited competition and much discussion of the several sites proposed, but in one instance only was the proposal accompanied by the required cash bonus of at least $30,000.

The good faith of the Chamber of their protestations of good faith in the compares is pledged to the erection of matter.

HAMBURGER NOT ALARMED. Said M. A. Hamburger yesterday: No site in the city could be more entral than that chosen by the Cham-er of Commerce on Broadway, be-ween First and Second streets. It ber of Commerce on Broadway, between First and Second streets. It is the natural center of the city—many people do not realize that—but you must consider the vast territory east of the river. All the car lines practically center there. Boyle Heights, Downey avenue and Fico Heights cars pass the door; the Second-street line comes within half a block, while the University. West Ninth, Washington-street, Maple-avenue, Central-avenue, Pasadena and Santa Monica lines come within a block and a half. A site-could not have been more wisely chosen, and there the Chamber of Commerce should be located, regardless of anybody's interests. I own no property in the neighborhood, and have no 'ax to grind.' But I don't think that there is any danger of the Chamber of Commerce attempting to go back on an agreement into which they have deliberately entered."

H. C. Chilson, manager of Wolf & Chamber and The site is as central

GOOD INDORSEMENT.

H. C. Chilson, manager of Wolf & Chilson, said: "The site is as central as any that can be found, and I doubt if, in point of accessibility, it can be duplicated. The building of Mason's Operahouse, just across the street from the Chamber of Commerce sife, is a good indorsement of the whole proposition, both in a business way and in point of convenience of access. It would be a break of faith, of which the Chamber of Commerce will not be guilty, to desert the property, for the purchase of which they have accepted $30,000 in subscriptions. There is a question whether they could do so, sum of $30,000, and to mortgage said premises for the unpaid purchase price, or for the purpose of erecting a building or buildings thereon in a sum limited to the amount paid into the said building fund and actually expended for said real estate and improvements thereon, and the said property alone shall be liable for such unpaid purchase price, or the mortgage debt secured thereon, provided that no site for a building shall be purchased, or a decision reached to erect a building thereon, except after a majority vote of all the directors.

I "I worked actively as chairman of the Building Committee in obtaining the fund, which amounted to $31,600, and we cannot break faith with the subscribers thereto."

Joseph Mesmer, Fred Eaton and A. W. Rhodes, three of the hardest workers in behalf of raising a bonus of $30,000 in order to procure a site for the Chamber of Commerce on Broadway north of Second street, and who contributed liberally of their own money for the purpose, have since disposed of most of their property in the vicinity of the purchased site, but they have not lost interest in the carrying out of the project.

JOSEPH MESMER'S VIEWS.
"There is absolutely no excuse for the reopening of this question," said Mr. Mesmer yesterday. "In the first place there was a free-for-all fight on the question of location. The directors of the Chamber of Commerce invited proposals for a site for the proposed building. Competition was open to all of the Chamber of Commerce invited proposals for a site for the proposed building. Competition was open to all sections of the city, and many different sites were proposed. It was understood that the site to be selected would have to be centrally located, and that the adjacent property owners would be required to put up a hardsome bonus. We found a suitable site, not only as to price and location, but undertook to raise a subsidy of $30,000. We presented our proposition. It was received and discussed open and above board. The advocates of other sites had every opportunity to submit a counter-proposition and a better one if they had it, but they did not do it. Consequently our offer was accepted and we went to work to make good off proposal.

"It was agreed between the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and our committee that as soon as we raised the $30,000 bonus they would purchase the lot and proceed at once with the received not of a building of not less than three or four stories. We worked hard to get the necessary subscriptions. I put in at least three weeks of solid time myself on the proposition, and there were other members of the committee who devoted their time and efforts to the same purpose in a like entire $75,000 that is now being asked to start the work. I admit that self-interest made the raising of the boards of other sites, sopen of other sites and errors to the same purpose in a like entire $75,000 that is now being asked to start the work. I admit that self-interest made the raising of the boards of other sites, of other sites, of other sites, of other sites and the work of the enterprise. The result was that we raised to the subscribe that amount was of the enterprise of other sites. advocates of other sites and every opportunity to submit a counter-proposition and a better one if they had it, but they did not do it. Consequently our offer was accepted and we went to work to make good off proposal.

We worked hard to get the necessary subscriptions. Iput in at least three weeks of solid time myself on the proposition, and there were other members of the committee who devoted their time and efforts to the same purpose in a like degree. The result was that, we raised not only the $30,000 promised, but nearly $32,000, over $30,000 of which has been collected, and the rest is good and can be collected with little trouble. "But what haye the directors of the Camber of Commerce done toward the carrying, out of their agreement." Nothing. The board has not shown good faith in the master. A few knockers have gone to work and prevented action of any kind. I have gone to the directors having the matter in charge at least a dozen times to try to get them to act, but they keep on procrastinating. There are persons with axes to grind, who are trying to kill the project. These people are animated by selfish motives. They would not give the required bonus themselves, in order to secure the location; they want to prevent use advantage of the benefit shall would result from having such a building located adjacent to their property.

BRYSON WILL TAKE BONDS.

Ex-Mayor John Bryson, who subscribed $1000 to the bonus and whose reputation as a sound financier and farsighted business man is undoubted, is both surprised and indignant that any effort should be made at this late date to change the chamber's plans. "Uncle John" considers the location adopted an ideal one and thinks it is preposterous to try to abandon it now. Said he yesterday.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PAUL (Minn.) April 2.—During the past twenty-four hours, 2000 settlers have left St. Paul for Northwestern points along the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Soo lines. The number includes those who have been delayed in the city, because of the floods around Bismarck, and those who poured into St. Paul today on the early trains from central and southern points.

The number of settlers who pass through the St. Paul gateway on Thursday will, in all probability, be larger than that of today.

The trainloads of emigrant movables and tive stock which have been held at Minneseta, transfer, because of the blockade, commenced to move forward last night, and the congestion of business at that point is largely broken.

"Without the subscription of $30,000 the Chamber of Commerce would not have considered the matter of erecting a new building. This is set forth clearly in the bylaws of the organization, section 1 of which is as follows:

"Resolved, by the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, that the said donation by the property holders in that locality [Broadway, between First and Second streets,] be and the same is hereby accepted, and the said lot is hereby selected as the site for the Chamber of Commerce, and the Board of Directors thereof does hereby pledge its good faith to take immediate steps to consummate the purchase of such property and raise the necessary funds for the erection of a building thereon to cost not less than 3 $75,000, exclusive of the purchase price of the lot, and to proceed with the construction of said building with due diligence after the necessary money therefor has been raised."

The good faith of the Chamber of Commerce is pledged to the erection of a building to cost not less than $75,000, on the lot situated on the east side of Broadway between First and Second streets, recently purchased for that purpose.

This pledge was made by formal resolution, unanimously adopted May 10, 1801, in accepting a donation of $31,600 made by interested property holders in consideration that the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce would be established on the premises in question.

At the time this solemn obligation was taken the matter of location for the proposed new home for the Chamber of Commerce was considered finally settled. The directors had long deliberated over the question of an available and proper site, and offers from property owners in various sections of the business district were invited. There was spirited competition and much discussion of the several sites proposed, but in one instance only was the proposal accompanied by the required cash bonus of at least $30,000.

cently sold the property on account of which I worked for the Upper for the Upper Broadway site for the Chamber Broadway site for the Chamber of Commerce, so am no longer personally interested in the matter, but I believe as strongly now as I did formerly, that the chamber ought to carry out its programme. The site selected is all right. There can be no serious objection to creating a bonded indebiedness to erect such a building on it sterrday.

as has been proposed. There would be no difficulty in disposing of the bonds, and the income from reats and other sources ought to be sufficient to gradually and the suffici sources ought to be sufficient to grad-unily redeem them. Fear has been expressed that the chamber might default on the bonds and lose the building. What if it should? The chamber would at least have had free rent for a num-ber of years, and whatever loss there would be would be the bondholders. Let them do the worrying, if there is any to be done.

"Some southern real estate dealers are simply at the bottom of this newly-started agitation. They want the Chamber of Commerce building now when it is too late. They had a chance to bid for it, but did not do it. We raised the money we were asked to raise, and got the location. Unless the directors go ahead with the vill not be acting in

HAMBURGER NOT ALARMED. Said M. A. Hamburger yesterday: "No site in the city could be more central than that chosen by the Chamcentral than that chosen by the Chamber of Commerce on Broadway, between First and Second streets. It is the natural center of the city—many people do not realize that—but you must consider the vast territory east of the river. All the car lines practically center there. Boyle Heights, Downey avenue and Pico Heights cars pass the door; the Second-street line comes within half a block, while the University, West Ninth, Washington-street, Maple-avenue, Central-avenue, Passadena and Santa Monica lines come within a block and a half. A site could not have been more wisely chosen, and there the Chamber of Commerce should be located, regardless of anybody's interests. I own no property in the neighborhood, and have no 'ax to grind. But I don't think that there is any danger of the Chamber of Commerce attempting to go back on an agreement into which they have deliberately entered."

GOOD INDORSEMENT.

H. C. Chilson, manager of Wolf & Chilson, said: "The site is as central as any that can be found, and I doubt if, in point of accessibility, it can be duplicated. The building of Mason's Operahouse, just across the street from the Chamber of Commerce site, is a good indorsement of the whole proposition, both in a business way and in point of convenience of access. It would be a break of faith, of which the Chamber of Commerce will not be guilty, to desert the property, for the purchase of which they have accepted $30,000 in subscriptions. There is a question whether they could do so, do not believe that the business center will ever go farther south than it is, now. That is why I favor the Broadway site for the Chamber of Commerce building. The chamber is bound to stay by it.

"I admit that it is a hard matter to raise $75,600 by subscriptions, but I believe the money required for the building can be raised by bonding at a low rate of interest, and that the income from the building will be sufficient to pay the interest and gradually redeem the bonds."

committee that as soon as we raised the $30,000 bonus they would purchase the lot and proceed at once with the erection of a building of not less than three or four stories. We worked hard to get the necessary subscriptions. I put in at least three weeks of solid time myself on the proposition, and there were other members of the committee who devoted their time and efforts to the same purpose in a like degree. The result was that we raised not only the $30,000 promised, but nearly $32,000 over $30,000 of which has been collected, and the rest is good and can be collected with little trouble. The Chamber of Commerce does toward the worked action of any kind. I have good faith in the maxier. A few knockers have gone to work and prevented action of any kind. I have gone to the directors having the maties to try to get them to act, but they keep on procrastinating. There are persons with axes to grind, who are trying to suit they would not give the required boaus themselves, in order to secure the location: they want to prevent their more enterprising neighbors from raping any of the benefits that would result from having such a building located adjacent to their property.

"There can be no valid objection to the site selected. It is the best, property in the city today, at the price paid for it. There is nothing to parallel it as an investment, There is no location for a building on the site selected. I know a man who is ready to take it off their hands, and erect an up-to-date five-story building at his own risk—aman who is able to erect a fifteen-story building. BRYSON WILL TAKE BONDS.

Ex-Mayor John Bryson, who subscribed $1690 to the bonus and whose reputation as a sound financier and farsighted business man is undoubted, is both surprised and indignant that any effort should be made at this late date to change the chamber's plans. "I worked actively as chairman of the Building Committee in obtaining the fund, which amounted to $31,600 and we cannot break faith with the subscribers thereto."

Joseph Mesmer, Fred Eaton and A. W. Rhodes, three of the hardest workers in behalf of raising a bonus of $30,000 in order to procure a site for the Chamber of Commerce a site for the Chamber of Commerce as the form money for the purpose, have since disposed of most of their property in the vicinity of the purchased site, but they have not lost interest in the carrying out of the project.

JOSEPH MESMER'S VIEWS.

"There is absolutely no excuse for the reopening of this question," said Mr. Mesmer yesterday. "In the first place there was a free foul fast, and the states of ploneers, making it difficult to handle in the line is not far distant when Broadway between the Courthouse and the City Hall will be graced with a fine that direction again in the course of the vicinity of the purpose, have since distant when the vicinity of the purpose, have since distant when the vicinity of the purpose, have since distant when the vicinity of the project.

Mr. Mesmer yesterday. "In the first place there was a free-for-all fight on the question of location. The directors of the Chamber of Commerce invited proposals for a site for the proposed building. Competition was open to all sections of the city, and many different sites were proposed. It was understood that the site to be selected would have to be centrally located, and that the adjacent property owners would be required to put up a handsome bonus. We found a suitable site, not only as to price and location, but undertook to raise a subsidy of $30,000. We presented our proposition. It was received and discussed open and above board. The advocates of other sites had every opportunity to submit a counter-proposition and a better one if they had it, but they did not do it. Consequently our offer was accepted and we went to work to make good our proposal. "It was agreed between the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and our committee that as soon as we raised the $30,000 bonus they would purchase the lot and proceed at once with the erection of a building of not less than three or four stories. We worked hard to get the necessary subscriptions. The result was that we raised not only the $30,000 of which has been collected, and the rest is good and can be collected with little trouble. "But what have the directors of the Chamber of Commerce done toward the merce is at stake, and it would be dis-astrous to that excellent institution if the directors should break faith with the people who have donated over $30,-000 to start a building fund," said D. K. Edwards, one of the chief promoters of the enterprise. "Some of the sub-scribers to that fund would be willing

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP

DR. HARPSTER'S SANITARIUM SAN GABRIEL, CAL.

This magnificent institution is conducted exclusively for the care and treatment of diseases of the brain and nervous system, including nervous prostration, nervous dyspepsia, paralytic and spasmodic affections, morphine habit, alcoholism and mild cases of mental diseases.

The rooms, of which there are over 100, are all spacious and elegantly furnished, while the drawing rooms, music room and billiard hall are luxurious and pleasant enough to suit the most fastidious. The large park surrounding the building, with its magnificent shade trees and shrubbery, is a paradise of beauty and restfulness. A tennis court, eroquet ground, with carriage driving and picnics, make this an ideal resort.

The methods of treatment are the latest and most approved. Special attention is given to bathing, massage and electricity. Only first-class nurses employed.

FIGPRUNE mmm

A Perfect Food Drink

Possesses a delicate flavor and fragrant aroma not found in any other cereal coffee.

Figprune consists entirely of California figs, prunes and grain-scientifically blended.

Our own special method of manufacturing enables us to retain all the natural properties of the fruit and grain, giving to the consumer a table beverage of rare quality.

Figs and prunes, properly roasted, will brew as quickly as coffee, and the grain, treated by our method, infuses almost as readily. This is why Figprune should be boiled from 8 to 10 minutes only.

Cereal coffees composed mainly of solid grain, bran, etc. must be boiled from 15 to 25 minutes. Every housewife knows that continuous boiling destroys the flavor and aroma of any beverage.

Figprune is absolutely free from any artificial matter-a satisfying substitute for coffee and tea.

HARRIMAN'S VISIT.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES!

SAN DIEGO, April 2.—E. H. Hawriman and party have been to San Diego and have gone. The special arrived about 3 o'clock this morning and left for the North this afternoon. The Southern Pacific president was met at the train by a committee of citizens, who went to the depot about 10 o'clocked. Mr. Harriman had not yet gotten up, but received the Mayor, who placed at the disposal of the party tallyhos and the disposal of the party tallyhos and barouches and tendered all the invitations of those who would have liked to entertain the railroad party. Mr. Harriman replied that he did not care to drive about the city; he did not care Strictly Reliable. Men's Diseases Treated With Certainty.

When I speak of my certain methods of treating men's diseases I do not mean to imply that every case in existence will yield to them. However, I do mean that a majority of those cases that have been unskillfully treated and that are supposed to be incurable, will yield promptly and completely. I also mean that my acceptance of a case for treatment is agrurance of a cure, for I will not undertake a case unless conditions are favorable to give thoroughly satisfactory results.

in treating so-called "weakness." I imploy no tonice or s'imuiants. "Weakness" in all its phases and in practically every case that comes to me for treatment, is merely a symptom resulting from a state of chronic inflammation existing in the prostate gland. This inflammation may be a lingering result of some contributed disease, or may have been brought on by early dissipation, excesses, etc. In by far the greater number of-cases the general health of the patient is perfect, there being no lack of either physical or nervous energy. No stimulants or tonice are needed, and if employed would only result in temporary excitement of the functions and positive injury to the tender and airment is a local one entirely. It removes all inflammation, swelling anticendermess from the prostate gland, establishes normal circulation throughout the parts and restores permanently and completely all natural functions. By this method alone is it possible to bring complete restoration of strength and vigor.

Contracted Disorders. Every contracted disease is attended by arrave dangers that nothing less than a thorough and absolute cure can remove. To take even the slightest chance in such cases is to invite lifelong misery. Men do not realize this as they should. A partial cure is followed by a chronic stage with all its horrors the same as though the disease had not been treated at all. I postitively will not dismiss a patient until every possibility of relapse is removed. By my system of treatment every patient is soundly cured, and made as free from disease taint as he was before the ailment was contracted.

Varicocle.

This most prevalent of all diseases of men is also the most neglected, either through dread of the harm methods of treatment commonly employed, or through ignorance of the grave dangers that, accompany the disease. As varicocele interferes directly with the circulation and process of waste and repair, throughout the generative organs, the necessity of a prompt and through cure cannot be too forcibly emphasized. I cure varicocele in one week by an absolutely penninesy process. My cures are thorough and absolutely permanent as are accomplished without the use of knife, ligature of caustic.

Stricture. My treatment for stricture is en-tirely independent of surgery. A com-plete cure is accomplished without cut-ting or dilating. All growths and ob-structions in the urinary passage are dissolved, the membranes cleansed, and all irritation or congestion re-moved throughout the organs involved,

Piles. Though I have seldom made not this distressing atlment in mouncements, new cases come every dayl for treatment as a of recommendations from those of recommendations from those I nave cured. I positively 'cure all cases of glies by the use of soothing and heal-ing remedies. I can guarantee a com-plete cure in every instance. My Colored Chart will afford you' valuable information as to the nature of men's diseases. Sent free upon re-that, there would be considerable money spent in improvements, but not in extensions.

He said that there are 175 miles of steel rails on their way to Southern California, and that the company will find some place to put them, although he could not say where at the present.

The whole party took carriages for the Coronado Hotel, where the larger part of the day was spent.

President Harriman and others of the party visited the San Diego-Eastern office this afternoon and looked over the maps and blue prints of the survey to Yuma. They were much interested in the explanations of the committeemen, and asked that when the report of the consulting engineer is made that they be forwarded a copy of it. "DRY" IMPERIAL.

The little town of Imperial on the desert has decided to be prohibition and stay prohibition. For some time since there have been peddling wagons passing through the sparsely-settled districts of the New River country and selling liquor in defiance of the law. One of these tried to do business in Imperial the other day, but the driver was waited upon by a committee of citizens, who invited him to pass on, and informed him that if he tried to sell his goods there he would get into trouble. The Imperial citizens say that they will not tolerate the liquor traffic.

April Sale Publishers Excess Stock of Standard and Copyrighted Books.

Priced at a HALF, a THIRD, and Even a FIFTH of Publishers' Prices. Last August it was—the public has not forgotten—that we astonished the book world by a sale not local in importance, but one which set the pace for every book seller in the United States and startled publishers everywhere. That sale, like a novel, has its sequel. The success of the great former sale has but recently-caused several of the large publishing houses to arrange with us to dispose of their surplus and
